"The best ABC books make you think, and the wordless ZOOPA: AN ANIMAL ALPHABET, by first-time children's book author Gianna Marino, asks a great deal of its readers."

-The New York Times Book Review

Who is Gianna Marino?

"I was born in San Francisco and spent my early years galloping horses in Golden Gate Park, trying (unsuccessfully) to get lost. My explorations expanded after graduating from high school and, in order to afford plane tickets and maps (so I wouldn't get truly lost), I juggled several jobs: apprenticing a muralist, a jewelry designer, and driving horse carriages through the park. I finally landed a job designing toys for children. After several years of working in a corporate box with no windows, I left for good and began painting and writing. I live in Napa. I have two dogs bigger than me, a cat almost as big as the dogs, and a horse that is just right."
